

On June 27, 1916, Archbishop Mundelein came to St. Patrick's and confirmed a class of nearly 150. (It had been seven years since the last Confirmation). It was about this time that Father Hemlock purchased the land with house adjacent to the present church.

Altar Boys – Confirmation – 1916
Ed Hennebry, Ed Wagner,
John Egan, Joe Brandt,
Harold Egan, Harkins Brandt,
Fred Wertzler.

The Wells Residence

House Purchased by Fr. Hemlock.
Now at Emil and Julia Streets

Confirmants – 1916
Doolin Sisters
Rosemary, Evelyn, Kathleen

St. Patrick's Parish House—The Rectory

In March of 1937, Father Hart purchased the present rectory from Olcott R. Derby for $4,500.00. The house that was situated where the Statue of the Blessed Mother is now was purchased by Mr. Joseph Slachetka and moved to Emil and Julia Streets.

Derby House – Present Rectory
(Taken from booklet "Greater Lemont – 1913")

More recent changes to the Rectory can be noted.
Can you tell what is missing/added?

Derby House, St. Patrick Parish House/Rectory, is currently the home of our resident pastor as well as our parish offices. It faithfully functions as meeting and entertaining spaces for our Parish Family.